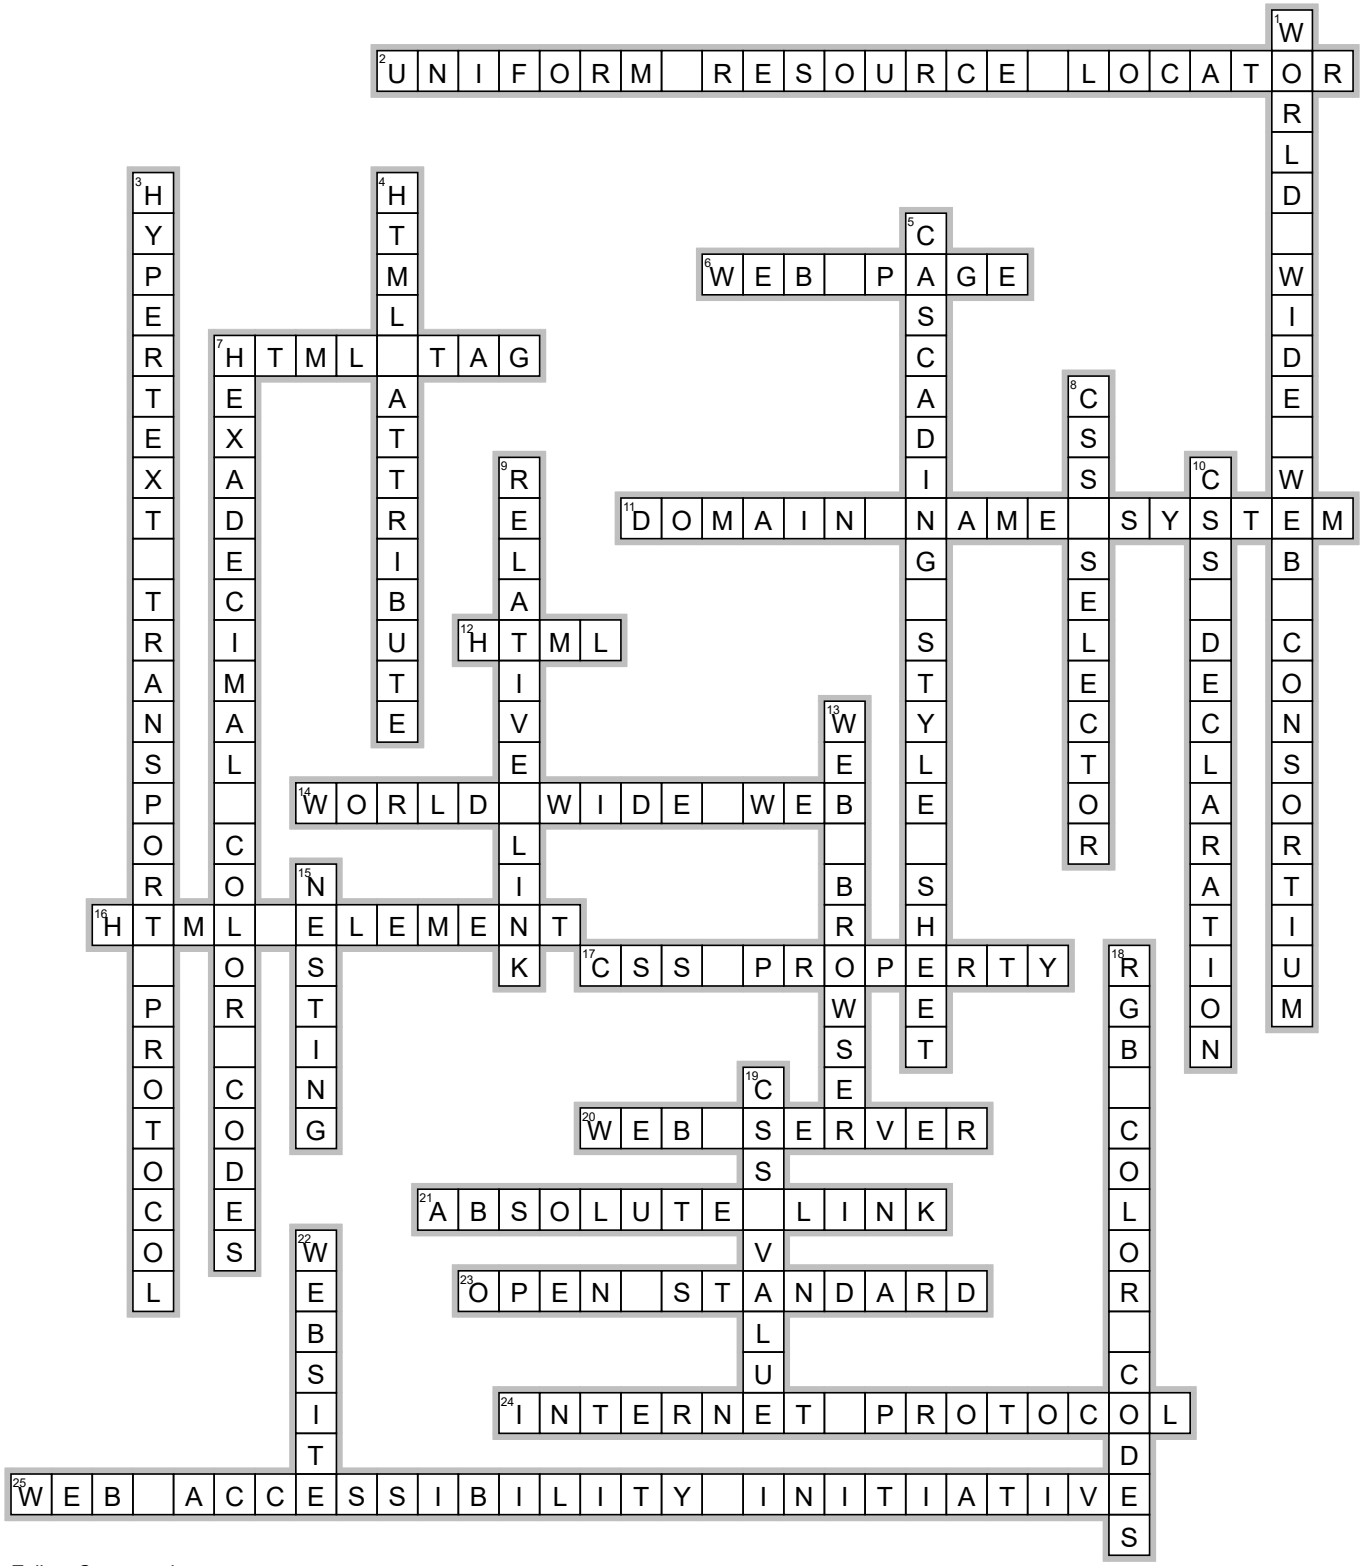
MaWD 4.01 Understand The Fundamentals of HTML5 and CSS



EclipseCrossword.com

MaWD 4.01 Understand The Fundamentals of HTML5 and CSS

Across

2. UNIFORM RESOURCE LOCATOR — The address used for locating a document on the Web (URL). (24)
6. WEB PAGE — A document which can display text, graphics, audio, video and other elements through a web browser. (8)
7. HTML TAG — Special codes which describe or define content in a Web document. (8)
11. DOMAIN NAME SYSTEM — Internet service that translates domain names into IP addresses. (18)
12. HTML — A language which means that special codes are used to define elements. (4)
14. WORLD WIDE WEB — A worldwide network of computers that communicate through http. (14)
16. HTML ELEMENT — The opening and closing tags including the text in between. (12)
17. CSS PROPERTY — The style attribute you want to change. (12)
20. WEB SERVER — A computer that runs special software to serve up Web content by responding to requests. (10)
21. ABSOLUTE LINK — A link that specifies a complete path to a file, including the protocol, server, directory, filename. (13)
23. OPEN STANDARD — A standard that is publicly available and has various rights to use associated with it, and may also have various properties of how it was designed. (13)
24. INTERNET PROTOCOL — A numeric string that identifies a device on a network. (IP) (17)
25. WEB ACCESSIBILITY INITIATIVE — A program for developing strategies, guidelines, and resources to help make the Web accessible to people with disabilities (WAI). (28)

Down

1. WORLD WIDE WEB CONSORTIUM — An international community that develops open standards for the Web (W3C). (25)
3. HYPERTEXT TRANSPORT PROTOCOL — The underlying protocol for how content is communicated on the Web (HTTP). (28)
4. HTML ATTRIBUTE — Provide HTML attributes with additional meaning and context. (14)
5. CASCADING STYLE SHEET — A language for defining how to display HTML elements. (21)
7. HEXADECIMAL COLOR CODES — Color values written with the # sign followed by six digits using The numbers 0 to 9 and A to F to represent the amount of red, green and blue. (23)
8. CSS SELECTOR — The HTML element that you want to style. (12)
9. RELATIVE LINK — A link that specifies the name of the file to be linked to as it relates to the current document. (13)
10. CSS DECLARATION — The style property and value. (15)
13. WEB BROWSER — Special software that displays the page by reading the instructions in the web document. (11)
15. NESTING — Putting an object inside another object; such as an HTML tag inside another HTML tag. (7)
18. RGB COLOR CODES — Color values using the combination of red, green, and blue values ranging from 0 to 255. (15)
19. CSS VALUE — The attribute you want applied to the property. (9)
22. WEBSITE — A collection of related webpages with a starting point or home page (7)